Comment Reasons:

Comment:There has been far too many houses/flats/apartments being built in this area. The rds cannot cope as it is. Especially now Galley Hill has collapsed which could take years to sort out. Parking is a huge issue in Swanscombe and is never taken into consideration when these houses etc are built. One parking space per dwelling, when most households have at least 2 if not more. How many more dwellings shall we have squeezed into every bit of spare land in this area. More crime. More pollution. Less open space less green belt less habitat for wild animals.
